Dear Senator Hughes,

Thank you for sending in a $5,000 contribution towards Fattah for Congress campaign.

We do appreciate the support; however, the Federal Elections Commission does not allow campaigns to accept funds from (certain political committees not registered with the FEC such as a state candidate committee. They may contribute up to $1,000 per calendar year to the campaign. However, the campaign must verify that the contributor had sufficient funds lawful under the FEC in its account to cover the contribution at the time it was made. Any contribution in excess of $1,000 could result in qualification as a "political committee" with separate registration and reporting requirements.)

Since your contribution was in excess of the allowable amount the campaign must refund the excessive funds. Enclosed you will find a check in the amount of $4,000 payable to Citizens for Hughes.

Please let me know if you have any questions and thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely yours,

Roger Jackson
Treasurer for Fattah for Congress

Enclosure

Contributions are not tax deductible. Federal law requires us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation, and name of employer of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 in an election cycle. Contributions from corporations and foreign nationals are prohibited. Persons are prohibited from making contributions in the name of another person. Individuals may contribute up to $2,700 per election and up to $5,400 per election cycle. Federal PAC limits permit up to $5,000 per election.
